

SOCIETY

It looks as though the winter is to be a gay one after all, and that Honolulu is to have many teas, receptions and dances. One of the delightful teas of this week was that at which Admiral and Mrs. C. B. T. Moore entertained on Wednesday afternoon. The affair took place at Pearl Harbor. Many of the guests went down on the train and were met at the station by special automobiles which conveyed them to the scene of the festivities. The gay Mexican creeper and yellow limerocks were combined in effective decorations, and the home of the hostess was a veritable bower of pretty flowers. During the afternoon Mrs. Moore was assisted by a number of the ladies at the Pearl Harbor station. Mrs. E. M. Quinn poured tea, Mrs. W. C. Fure served the ice and Miss Charlotte Hall presided over the punch bowl.

A number of beautiful gowns were noticed, among them being that of Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, who was attired in a gown of black brocade and wore a plumed royal purple hat.

Mrs. Moore was attired in a simple costume of black and white.

Mrs. Charles Chillingworth was simply dressed in a black and white combination of charmeuse and lace. She wore a large black hat ornamented with a single silver rose.

Mrs. L. L. Wilson was dressed in blue charmeuse with an overskirt of black chiffon. She wore a black hat. One of the prettiest costumes was that of Mrs. J. D. Reardon, who wore a white frock with an American Beauty Napoleon plait.

Mrs. A. N. Campbell was charming in a white lace frock and a picture hat adorned with green plumes.

A dainty lingerie costume seen was that of Mrs. E. M. Watson, who was in a creation of black and white. A touch of color was added with a blue giraffe. Her hat was blue trimmed with pink plumes.

Mrs. W. E. Ellis was charming in a combination of blue chiffon over Dresden silk. Her hat was of black and gold.

Mrs. Harold Havensden wore a chic costume of black and white.

Mrs. George F. Humbert was attractively gowned in a wisteria suit with a hat of harmonizing shade.

Some among those who called during the afternoon were General and Mrs. William H. Carter, Governor Pinkham, Mr. and Mrs. John Dominis, Mrs. Chas. Chillingworth, Mr. and Mrs. McCandless, Major and Mrs. E. V. Smith, Mrs. Arthur Wall, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. Benjamin Marx, Colonel and Mrs. Francis French, General and Mrs. Clarence R. Edwards, Mr. Frederick Wichman, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit P. Wilder, Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, Mrs. Gamble, Mrs. Harrie Gamble, Mrs. S. D. Barnes, Captain and Mrs. George Jamerson, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, Dr. and Mrs. H. Y. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Dr. and Mrs. Adams, Colonel and Mrs. W. E. Ellis, Colonel and Mrs. Brownell, Captain and Mrs. John Stuart Johnston, Captain and Mrs. F. W. Phisterer, Honorable Morichi Kibe and Mrs. Kibe, Mrs. Jerome Pillow, Mrs. J. D. Reardon, Mrs. L. L. Wilson, Miss Helen Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheedy, Mrs. E. B. Waterhouse, Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, Mrs. Albert Waterhouse, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hedemann and Dr. Shephard.

Col. and Mrs. Brownell Entertain.

Colonel and Mrs. Edward Burr, who were in Honolulu this week during the visit of the transport Sherman, were guests of honor at an informal dinner on Tuesday evening at which Colonel and Mrs. Charles S. Brownell entertained. The table was prettily dressed for the occasion in delicate pink roses and maidenhair fern. Colonel and Mrs. Brownell's guests included Colonel and Mrs. Edward Burr, Colonel and Mrs. Luman W. V. Kennon, Colonel and Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, Captain and Mrs. George H. Jamerson, Captain and Mrs. W. P. Hannum, Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Colonel and Mrs. J. H. McDonald, Captain and Mrs. Paul H. Maione, Major Arthur Conklin.

Elaborate Banquet to Be Held.

With Mrs. C. A. Peacock as chairman and Miss Lottie Cowan as secretary, a banquet is to be held at the National Guard armory on October 21 by the ladies and friends of the Sacred Heart chapel, Punahou. The purpose is to raise funds to enable the final payments to be made on the pretty new chapel at Punahou and Wilder avenue.

Many prominent society folk and those well known in Honolulu's younger set are taking an active interest in the fair and are working hard to make it a success.

The following announcement is made of the various committees and the feature each will look after:

Mrs. J. Maxson has charge of the flower and lot booth and will have an abundance to choose from. She has a boy of pretty girls as assistants, the following being named: Miss Hazel Maxson, Miss Irene Hughes, Miss Margaret Collins, Miss Lillian Fennell, Miss Avis Fennell, Miss Alice Schooler and Mrs. Gaspar Silva.

Doll Booth—Some very beautiful dolls are to be at this booth. One very large baby doll called Peace baby, dressed by Mrs. C. Peacock, will be some little girl's delight in possessing it. Mrs. Campbell will be in charge. Those assisting will be Mrs. E. M. Watson, Mrs. J. Balch, Miss Peacock, Mrs. O'Hara.

Fancy Work Booth—Mrs. J. J.

CALLING DAYS FOR HONOLULU.

Mondays—Punahou, Makiki.
Tuesdays—Waikiki, Kaplani.
Park, Kaimuki, Palolo. First Tuesday—Fort Ruger.
Wednesdays—Nuuanu, Punahou, Pacific Heights. First and third Wednesdays, above Nuuanu.
Thursdays—Manoa, College Hills. First and third Thursdays.
Fridays—Hotels and town. First Friday: Fort Shafter, first.
Saturdays—Kalihi, third and fourth Saturdays; Kamehameha schools, last Saturday.
Fort Shafter—Calling day every Friday.

Note—The telephone number of the Society Editor is 2799.

Carey in charge. Assistants—Mrs. Lord, Mrs. A. Wirtz, Miss Charlotte Cowan, Mrs. Hannigan, Miss Julia Hollinger.

Apron Booth—Miss Morrice.

The Delicatessen Booth—Mrs. McVeigh, Mrs. J. Duggan, Mrs. S. McKeague, Mrs. Etta Sullivan, Mrs. Etta Glade, Mrs. Rhoda. These ladies, who are such excellent providers, have promised good eats from most of Honolulu's best cooks.

Candy Booth—Miss Sarah Lucas has promised a bountiful supply of home-made candy. Those assisting her will be Mrs. W. B. Lymer, Mrs. Norma Adams, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Rennie Catton, Miss Helen Girvin, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Darcy Guild, Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Marion Chaplin, Miss Rosie Herbert, Miss Esther Kopke, Miss Lulu Webber, Miss Bertha Kopke, Miss Grace Stephens, Mrs. Loomis.

Ice Cream Booth—Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson at the head of it, with Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. J. M. McChesney, assisted by these fair young assistants who are always ready to help in the cause of charity: Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Marjorie Freeth, Miss Blanche Soper, Miss Ahrens, Miss Louise McCarthy, Miss Irlene McCarthy, Miss Mabel Lightfoot, Miss Evelyn Scott, Miss Gertrude Mason, Miss Bernice Gustine, Miss Lillian McCarthy, Miss Ruth Stacker, Miss Marion Lightfoot, Miss Louise McGovern, Miss Louise Lightfoot and Miss McChesney.

Lemonade Booth—Mrs. Carpenter of Fort Ruger will have charge of the lemonade booth. Those assisting her will be Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss McDonald, and Mrs. Reynolds.

The afternoon tea booth will be in charge of Mrs. Malone of Fort Shafter, assisted by a number of army ladies.

Mrs. Ziegler and Mrs. all will provide the best coffee and sandwiches, assisted by Miss Gladys Galt, Miss Emma French, Miss Helen King, Miss Blanche Cockett, Miss Hazel Williams.

Mrs. T. J. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. J. J. Sullivan will have the best of cigars and cigarettes at their booth and wish to supply all the electors of the coming election with them. Those assisting are Mrs. Slatery, Mrs. Orestham, Miss A. Murphy and Miss Devine.

Grab Booth—Mrs. Lenihan of Fort Shafter will have charge of this booth, assisted by her charming daughters, the Misses Lenihan, and Miss Carpenter.

Punch and Judy Show—The children are being well provided for in the way of an afternoon's concert and Punch and Judy show. Mr. Arthur Knight has promised to give the children lots of fun and Mrs. Schneider and Mrs. S. Heapy will have charge of this affair.

Vaudeville—Mr. Jack Cleary, Mrs. G. R. Schrader and Mrs. Stafford Heapy are in charge of the evening's vaudeville entertainment and many of Honolulu's best local talent will contribute their best in the cause of charity. A list of those appearing will be published later. Those helping are Miss Olympia France, Miss Mabel Larsen, Miss Julia Gleason, Maggie Rodriguez and Margaret Cowan.

A Kitchen Shower for Miss Constance Simpson.

Miss Constance Simpson, who is to be one of the November brides, her marriage to John Ashley being set for the 8th day of November, was the motif for a kitchen shower on Monday afternoon at which Mrs. Ralph Johnston was hostess. About 20 guests were present.

A Luncheon for Miss Kincaid.

Miss Eliza Kincaid, whose engagement to Mr. Sam Chillingworth was announced recently, is guest of honor at a luncheon today at which Mrs. Ferdinand Hone, Mrs. Chillingworth's sister, is presiding. The afternoon will be spent hemming towels for Miss Kincaid. The affair is being given at Mrs. Hone's home in Manoa valley and the guests are Miss Eliza Kincaid, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Miss Silvester, Mrs. James L. Coke, Mrs. William E. Lymer, Mrs. Harry Murray, Miss Ethel Carter, Miss Sewall and Mrs. Dobson.

Luncheon for Miss Winans.

Miss Catherine Winans, one of the popular brides-elect of the service was the guest of honor at an informal luncheon on Wednesday at which Miss Betty Case was hostess. An attractive centerpiece of white daisies interspersed with maidenhair fern ornamented the table, at which covers were laid for Miss Catherine Winans, Miss Harrison, Miss Nora Sturgeon, Miss Lila McDonald, Miss Beatrice Castle, Miss Elmore Lenihan, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Miss Helen Alexander, Miss Nora Seansy, Miss Baird and Miss Case.

The wedding of Miss Winans and Lieutenant Russell L. Maxwell of Schofield Barracks is to be one of the brilliant affairs of next month. The luncheon of this week is only one of a series of similar entertainments which are being given in honor of Miss Winans.

Ordered to Fort Ruger.

The friends of Lieutenant and Mrs. Daniel Swan of Fort Armstrong are delighted to know that they are soon to be among the service folk at Fort Ruger. Mrs. Swan is a delightful woman and has been one of the most charming hostesses at the other fort.

Maxwell-Winans.

Miss Catherine Winans has announced the 3d of November as the date of her marriage to Lieutenant Russell L. Maxwell. The wedding will be one of the most brilliant affairs of the month and will be largely attended by Honoluluans as well as the friends of the young people at Schofield Barracks, where Lieutenant Maxwell is stationed.

A Bridge Luncheon.

A pleasant affair of the week was the bridge luncheon at which Mrs. Frederick W. Phisterer was hostess on Wednesday. The ladies gathered at Mrs. Phisterer's home at Fort Ruger at 10:30 in the morning and played until the luncheon hour. The guests of honor on the occasion were Mrs. Edward Burr, who passed through Honolulu on the Sherman, and Mrs. Chas. S. Brownell. Pink and green were the colors seen in the decorations and pink carnations combined with maidenhair fern were much in evidence. The prizes, dainty lacquer bowls, were carried away by Mrs. Brownell and Mrs. McDonald.

Among those present were Mrs. Edward Burr, Mrs. Brownell, Mrs. H. E. Ellis, Mrs. H. McK. Harrison, Mrs. E. V. Smith, Mrs. M. J. Leishan, Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. J. B. McDonald, Mrs. Ralph Harrison, Mrs. Phisterer, Sr. and the hostess.

Homeward Bound.

Honolulu will welcome Miss Helen McLean, who is expected home on the 27th. Miss McLean has been visiting on the mainland for several weeks and has been missed greatly by the members of the younger set.

Mrs. J. D. Reardon a Hostess.

Mrs. J. D. Reardon was hostess at a charming tea yesterday afternoon in compliment to her mother, Mrs. L. L. Wilson, who is visiting her. Mrs. Reardon's home was prettily decorated for the occasion with delicate pink carnations and quantities of lacy maidenhair fern. During the afternoon Mrs. William H. Carter and Mrs. Black poured tea and ice were served by Miss Lila McDonald, Miss Betty Case and Miss Nora Sturgeon. About 30 ladies called to meet Mrs. Wilson.

An Informal Dinner.

At Kaula, their beautiful home in Manoa valley, Mr. and Mrs. C. Montague Cooke, Jr., entertained informally at dinner on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Amy Greenwell of Kona. Covers were laid for Miss Amy Greenwell, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ross, Mr. Greenwell, Mr. George Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Cooke.

Mrs. Albert Horner a Hostess.

Mrs. Frances Day will be the guest of honor at an informal tea this afternoon at which Mrs. Albert Horner is entertaining. This is one of the several affairs which have been planned in honor of Mrs. Day this winter. The house will be prettily decorated in potted palms, ferns and fragrant cut flowers.

Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey a Hostess.

A pretty affair of the week was the luncheon at which Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey entertained Mrs. W. O. Atwater and Miss Julia Benner on Thursday. The long table at which the guests were seated was attractively decorated in delicate lavender water-lilies and violets, interspersed with dainty pink blossoms. Covers were laid for Mrs. W. O. Atwater, Miss Julia Benner, Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, Mrs. E. K. Myers, Mrs. Edwin Benner, Mrs. Sherwood Lowrey, Mrs. Frederick D. Lowrey, Mrs. G. Fred Bush and the hostess.

Engagement is Announced.

Mrs. K. B. Lindley announces the engagement of her daughter, Ruth Dorothea, to Mr. Alfred K. Magoon.

This announcement is not altogether a surprise to the friends of the young people, as the romance began when they were students in Punahou preparatory school and continued during the two years they attended Punahou Academy. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

A Poi Luncheon at the Country Club.

Miss Lena Johnson was the guest of honor at an informal poi luncheon at the Country Club today at which Miss Mary Johnson was hostess. The table was prettily decorated for the occasion in vivid scarlet carnations and each fair guest was given a lot of the same flower. Miss Johnson's guests included Miss Lena Johnson, Mrs. Wakesfield, Mrs. Pauntleroy, Mrs. George Klusgel, Mrs. Robert McElowney, Mrs. Busher, Mrs. Harold Hayelden, Mrs. George Angus, Miss Sybil Robertson, Miss Frances Rawlins and Miss Gartiend.

Mrs. Bon May Return to the Islands.

The many friends of Mrs. Charles Bon were delighted to learn of her safe arrival in New York with her two children, Johnson and Jessie. It was hoped that Mrs. Bon, who was in Switzerland at the outbreak of the war, will return to Honolulu in the near future. At present, however, her plans are rather undecided.

The Baby Show.

November's largest social event will be the baby show and circus on the twenty-first of the month. There will be babies of all sizes, babies with bottles, babies with dolls, babies with toys and baby babies with the things that little boys like to play with. After the youngsters have been on exhibition they will take part in an old-fashioned baby circus. Although some think that babies alone without any practiced stunts are circuses in themselves.

One of the big features of the affair will be the sale of tropical plants and slips. A tower will be attached to each plant of its kind, thus giving prospective purchasers an opportunity of making a wider selection.

Later in the evening there will be dancing and society vaudeville which of course will interest the grown-ups.

The beautiful home of Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey will be opened for the entertainment, most of the "stunts" taking place on the velvet lawns surrounding the house. The circus will be under the direction of the Outdoor Circle, and the proceeds will be devoted towards completing the beautifying of Kalakaua avenue as soon as it is ready for more planting.

Luncheon for Mrs. Raymond.

A delightful affair of the week was the luncheon at which Mrs. Helen Noonan and Mrs. George Herbert entertained in honor of Mrs. H. E. Raymond on Thursday afternoon at the Country Club. The decorations were exceptionally beautiful and were arranged by Ernest Parker. Several of the pastels shades of the African daisy were combined with tulle of harmonizing shades. The guests included Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth, Mrs. A. Haneberg, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. Eben Low, Mrs. Frank Armstrong, Mrs. William Williamson, Mrs. George Collins, Miss Violet Mabee and Miss Rose Herbert.

The Meeting of the College Club.

The October meeting of the College Club at the Pleasanton hotel on Tuesday afternoon was very much in the nature of a reception. Mrs. Francis Day, so well known here, was the guest of honor and Dr. Arthur L. Dean delivered the lecture of the afternoon. Some of those present were Mrs. Francis Day, Doctor Dean, Miss Florence Hoffman, Mrs. Wallace R. Farrington, Miss Agnes Alexander, Mrs. Shepherd, Mrs. Owen, Miss Juanita Day, Mrs. William Gaynor, Mrs. W. B. Thomas, Mrs. S. D. Barnes, Mrs. A. A. Eder, Mrs. W. C. Hobdy, Miss Bravthen, Mrs. A. F. Griffiths, Mrs. Isaacs, Mrs. Cox, Miss Fowler, Miss Long, Mrs. Schmutzler, Mrs. Howland, Miss Letitia Morgan and Miss Young.

A November Wedding.

The younger set in San Francisco, and particularly that part of it belonging to the service, is looking forward to the wedding this month of pretty Miss Edith Pearkes and Lieutenant Herman French Vulte.

Lieutenant Vulte is attached to the U. S. S. San Diego, formerly the cruiser California, which has been cruising in southern waters all summer. The definite date of the Pearkes-Vulte wedding had not been set until the cruiser returned to the bay.

A number of affairs aboard the vessel will be given in honor of the good-looking officer and his pretty fiancée, and this will mean that San Francisco's younger set will be all in a hurry, for to them there is no entertainment so fascinating as one aboard one of Uncle Sam's big boats.

Alas for the Stout Woman.

This year Dame Fashion has entirely forgotten to provide anything for the stout matron. The new costumes show no waist line and were designed especially for the slender figure. There is only one hope. America's women must design their own gowns. They have already been advised to do so by a French modiste of Paris who says that creators of fashion in Europe have ceased to create and when they finished the costume for the slender woman the war broke out and in the excitement her stout sister was forgotten.

A Bridge Tea.

Mrs. Kenneth Cousins was hostess at a pretty affair on Wednesday afternoon when she entertained a few of her friends at a bridge tea. Her home was prettily decorated in pink and green and quantities of fragrant pink roses and ferns were in evidence about the rooms. Some of Mrs. Cousins' guests included Miss Edith Minter, Mrs. Soper, Mrs. Harold Hayelden, Mrs. Robert Minter, Mrs. Donald Ross, Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Miss Blanche Borden, Miss Genevieve Jordan, Mrs. J. H. McDonald, Miss Maud Jordan and Mrs. Albert Horner.

Judge and Mrs. Charles F. Clemons were home-coming passengers in the Matsonia this week, after having spent several weeks visiting in California and Washington, D. C.

(Additional society on page fourteen.)

Mme. Irene
No. 2276

This corset has been very satisfactorily designed to meet the latest style features combined with an adaptability to the average figure, giving perfect satisfaction to every woman to whom it is fitted. It has a medium bust, high back which controls flesh over the shoulder blades and is long below the waist. $5.00.

Madame Irene Corsets

the best back-lace corsets

Gossard Corsets

the best front-lace corsets

In securing the exclusive agency for this territory and stocking a large and fine assortment of Madame Irene Corsets we are assured of further successes and know that we are in a position to meet and satisfy the needs and demands of the most discriminating.

Madame Irene Corsets are known throughout the United States and in Europe as distinctive creations and are accepted by originators of fashion as a correct foundation for authoritative styles.

This line of Corsets coupled with the Gossard front-lace corsets and other well known makes offer not only a wide selection of styles and designs but a means of fitting every figure and a corset for every need and for every occasion.

Our Miss Parrot but recently returned from the East where she made an exhaustive study of Corsetry received while there a Diploma of Merit for proficiency in corsetry and knowledge of fitting.

Miss Parrot through the medium of these new corsets is enabled to secure wonderfully satisfactory results with any and every figure.

Corsets from $2.00 to $25.00

D. F. Ehlers & Company
EST. 1898

No. 550-5

Gossard

A light weight, lightly-boned model, with extremely low bust, large waist and flat hips and back lines. The lower portion gives entire freedom to the limbs, the skirt of the corset being cut away in front. An elastic section in the back adds to the unrestrained effect, while holding the lower portion of the corset very close to the figure. This model is excellent for dancing. $5.00.

An important skirt sale announcement on page 6 of this issue.